

December 5th at Porter Ranch Town Center

Annual Chanukah Celebration This Week-End

Chabad centers of the North Valley with branches in Chatsworth, Northridge, and Porter Ranch, invite the entire community to celebrate the Festival of Lights with a grand “Inflatable Chanukah” experience, and Giant Balloon Menorah kindling ceremony, free of charge. The event will take place on Sunday, December 5th, at 4:30 PM at the Porter Ranch Town Center, on Northwest Corner of Corbin and Rinaldi.

The year’s program will feature the carving and kindling of a giant Balloon Menorah. Children (and children at heart) will enjoy getting into the holiday spirit with special crafts and activities. The program will also include Chanukah coins and treats for kids, delicious latkes & doughnuts, Chanukah crafts, and much more.

Chanukah, a celebration for all time is highlighted by the kindling of the Menorah each night of the holiday. “It is a holiday that enriches our lives with the light of tradition” said Rabbi Yossi Spritzer, director of Chabad of Chatsworth. “In ancient times our ancestors rededicated the Temple in Jerusalem with the Menorah. Today, we rededicate ourselves to making this world a better and brighter place.”

“Chanukah also propagates the universal message that ultimately good will prevail over evil, freedom over oppression and light over darkness,” said Rabbi Eli Rivkin, Director of Chabad of Northridge. “This annual ceremony has become an opportunity for thousands to come out and celebrate the freedoms provided to us in these blessed United States.”

“In its Chanukah outreach campaign, Chabad’s in the North Valley joins thousands of Chabad centers across the globe that are staging similar public displays of the Menorah and its symbolic lights”, said Rabbi Yochonon Baitelman, Director of Chabad at Porter Ranch. “From Australia to Africa, Columbia to Hong Kong, ground zero in New York, to the White House lawn, hundreds of thousands will experience the joy of Chanukah with Chabad.”

Join Chabad in a public display of unity at this exciting concert and Menorah Lighting Ceremony. Bring the kids and make this your special Chanukah celebration.
