

Celebrate "Holidays at the Rancho"

Dinner Show Features Holiday Music, Dancers, Singers and Works of Art

The New Mission Theatre is located on the grounds of Rancho Cordillera del Norte

You may never have heard of Rancho Cordillera del Norte... but no doubt you have driven by it. Located on the southwest corner of Nordhoff and Wilbur, the Rancho is the site of cultural events throughout the year and during the holiday season.

This year, the "Holidays at the Rancho" 2010 Gala Dinner Show will be held Saturday December 18th from 5:30 to 8 pm and includes a pre-show cocktail hour in the Angel Plaza, showing works by such artists as Raul Rodriguez and Ernesto de la Loza, before a Luminarias procession illuminated by candles to the New Mission Theatre for a dinner show presented by Elisabeth Waldo and her ensemble with guest dancers and singers.

From its Luminarias procession to the Dinner Show, featuring a holiday narrative based upon "Los Pastores," the "Holidays at the Rancho" 2010 Gala Dinner Show presents the culture of the southwestern United States in a festive holiday context perfect for celebrating with family and friends.

*Elisabeth Waldo and the MCMAFN Foundation present regular performances featuring the music and cultures of the world with an emphasis on the Pre-Columbian Americas and China, but stretching from the Middle East to Russia, as well.
